

LEDYARD CEO NAMED ONE OF NH'S OUTSTANDING WOMEN IN BUSINESS

Feb 4, 2010

Hanover, NH: Ledyard National Bank is proud to announce that Kathy Underwood, President and CEO, was named one of New Hampshire's Outstanding Women in Business for 2010. The annual award, given by New Hampshire Business Review, celebrates the success and achievements of women in our state's business community, and is open to women from all walks of life and professions. The newspaper selects 6 women each year to receive the award.

The award recognized Kathy's extraordinary accomplishments, workplace and community impact as well as her ability to overcome challenges while reaching for career and personal goals.

"I'm truly honored to be recognized for this award, along with the 5 other highly accomplished women, by such a prestigious resource as NHBR," said Ms. Underwood.

NHBR is one of New Hampshire's leading sources for business news, analysis, and commentary. The newspaper is known for profiling people who make up New Hampshire's business community.

